

For the Birds: Birds and Feathers Take Flight in Fashion

Posted Thursday, May 01, 2008 12:00:00 AM

Maybe it's a wish for peace amid all the bad-ass fashion out there: Doves, sparrows, and their feathered friends are popping up everywhere this spring. In the face of gloomy news about recessions and the high price of imported-organic-cage-free kiwis, these little birdies put a footloose and fancy-free spin on everyday items.

In the housewares department, Shecky's Girls Night Out designer Sylvie Guieysse makes beautiful pillows (11) out of silkscreened Japanese fabrics. Anthropologie, never one to shy away from the whimsical, is up to the rafters in birds this season with items like this Bird-In-Hand Apron (12) ($32) and pot holders (13) ($12 each).